

Welcome to the new town newsletter!

The sudden announcement in the January issue of the UCC Visitor that this was its last issue – after a 70-year history of publication – represented a serious loss to the Conway community, leaving a void in our lives. Suddenly town boards, committees, and councils had no way to announce programs and schedules, and residents were left without a forum of our own, a place to post notices or contribute articles, poems, recipes, and garden advice.

Recognizing the need for a town-wide newsletter if Conway were to retain its identity as an informed and involved community, several concerned residents approached the select board to make a case for the town administration to publish a monthly newsletter that would both fulfill the need for a means of information dissemination and serve the interests of townspeople. The select board responded by appointing the four of us to a committee to develop and produce the newsletter in your hands, and it appropriated the funds that have enabled us to do so. We are starting small, but we hope the newsletter will grow with each issue.

Our aim is not just to present select board and town department matters but to make the newsletter a true community newsletter containing contributions from that community. Your involvement will assure the growth of this newsletter into what we envision.

From the Town Administrator

Thank you to those who rallied around the need for a community newsletter and jumped in to get it done! I look forward to this new chapter in Conway history and hope that residents will let us know their thoughts and make suggestions about the newsletter.

This newsletter, designed to help bring the town together, could not come at a better time. The next few weeks and months will be challenging for many as we try to lessen the burden on local hospitals caused by the expected increase in COVID-19 virus cases. Please check www.townofconway.com for updates on COVID-19, helpful links, and more. You probably know that schools are closed, as are public gathering places (including all town buildings). Committees have conference lines for meetings to ensure that these are open meetings; anyone can call in. See the website calendar listings and click on them for the numbers to call (enter the PIN to join). This is in order to listen; please do not comment unless recognized by the chair.

By the time you get this newsletter, we will have a clearer picture of the level of local contagion, although we are in the early stages of this global pandemic. If events progress as most experts expect, Town Meeting may be postponed, perhaps until after June 30. Special legislation is being rushed through the State House and governor's office to address municipal needs. After June 30, the town may need to operate on last year's budget, month by month.

Still, the town will continue to operate: roads will be tended, the transfer station will be open, public safety officials will be available, and we will be working to make sure everyone in town has what they need to make it through this situation.

Thank you for your understanding during this difficult time.
Thomas W. Hutcheson

COVID-19: Staying Healthy and What To Do If You Are Sick

As more is learned about COVID-19 and the spread of the virus, having up-to-date guidance for preventing its spread and treating illness is important for all. While we learn more every day about the impact of this novel virus, there are basic steps all can take to slow the spread of illness in the community:

Take everyday preventive actions to stay healthy.

- Avoid close contact with people who are sick.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth.
- Stay home when you are sick.
- Cover your cough or sneeze with a tissue, then throw the tissue in the trash.
- Clean and disinfect frequently touched objects and surfaces using a regular household cleaning spray or wipe.
- Wash your hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds.

Follow public health advice.

Avoid crowds.

Take other suggested social distancing measures.

Stay informed.

The COVID-19 pages of the Massachusetts Department of Health and the Centers for Disease Control are updated as information becomes available.

If you develop such symptoms as fever, cough, and/or difficulty breathing and have been in close contact with a person known to have COVID-19 or to have recently traveled from an area with ongoing spread of COVID-19, stay home and call your healthcare provider. Older patients and individuals with severe underlying medical conditions or compromised immune systems should contact their healthcare provider early, even if their illness is mild.

If you have severe symptoms, such as persistent pain or pressure in the chest, new confusion, inability to arouse, or bluish lips or face, seek care immediately. Your doctor will determine if you have signs and symptoms of COVID-19 and whether you should be tested.

For more information contact Regional Public Health Nurse Lisa White at (413) 665-1400 x 114 or lwhite@frcog.org

Seniors: Need Help?

Seniors in need of help with shopping, picking up prescriptions, and so on should contact Pat Lynch, COA chair, at 369-4284 to let us know of your need. We will make every effort to get a volunteer to help. In addition, the South County Senior Center in South Deerfield is offering LifePath meals for pickup on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. Call the center at 665-2141 to order a meal.

Girl Scouting in Conway

The Conway Girl Scout Daisy Troop is made up of ten bold and adventurous first graders in their second year of learning new skills and forming lifelong bonds through Scouts. Since the troop's inception, they have visited farms, fire stations, museums, and mountain coasters and explored the great outdoors on hiking expeditions. They have also picked-up trash at the town ball field, met Tom Ricardi's raptors, and assisted limited-mobility residents of Buckley Healthcare. Last April the girls collected and decorated reusable bags to be given away at the Field Memorial Library. Proceeds from the troop's first cookie sale will support a camping trip; half to be donated to the Franklin County Regional Dog Shelter.

For their next service project, the girls are looking for an Earth Day activity. Suggestions are welcome! The troop is also working on a badge related to the role of seeds in nature. If you have unique seeds to share or are a farmer willing to speak to the girls or host a tour, please let a troop leader know staciebeck925@gmail.com or call 503-840-2897. We are always looking for opportunities to help the community.

The Conway Girl Scout Cadette Troop (seventh graders) have been together since kindergarten. This year, the girls are working on their Silver Award service project. They are putting together self-care bags for people who need help, such as after a fire or in domestic situations. The bags will include soap, shampoo, lotion, deodorant, toothbrushes and toothpaste, etc. There is a bin for donations in Town Hall. If you are interested in helping out, please let a troop leader know (369-4450) or contact gscwm.org.

Talkin' Trash

This month's column is brought to you by the Conway Board of Health. In these challenging times, we ask all residents visiting the Conway Transfer Station to please abide by the following rules:

- Keep a safe distance (six feet) from other users and attendants.
- Do NOT enter the attendants' shed.
- Don't linger on the premises to visit.

- Wash your hands and/or use hand sanitizer after leaving the transfer station.
- Make fewer trips.

Please note: the swap shed, or "Conway Mall," will be closed to the public temporarily. The "free table" is also closed for now, also for safety reasons.

Permit stickers will become available this month; please watch this newsletter for more information on how to purchase stickers or check the Board of Health page on the town website www.townofconway.com. The cost remains $10.00 per vehicle.

If you have questions about trash or recycling in Conway, please contact Veronique Blanchard at veroniquece28@gmail.com.

Field Memorial Library

Unfortunately, 2020 is not off to a happy start. Because of the coronavirus pandemic the library is closed until further notice. Nevertheless, there is library news, the first of which is that FML has a new director. My name is David Whittier, I have worked at FML for 2^{1/2} years, and I was delighted to be appointed director as of Dec 1, 2019, and to have served as interim director for five months before that. As director, I want to assure that library resources meet the needs and interests of Conway residents; please mail, email, call, or stop by the library when we reopen to share your interests and ideas on how FML can serve Conway. When we reopen, new titles will be available in fiction, nonfiction, and children's books.

Libraries in the Woods: In a major library project, already underway for 2020, FML joined with 24 other libraries in our area to form a "community read" project called "Libraries in the Woods," inspired by the nonfiction work Braiding Sweetgrass: Indigenous Wisdom, Scientific Knowledge, and the Teaching of Plants by Robin Wall Kimmerer. Please check our website or Libraries in the Woods on Facebook for links. As part of this project FML is hosting an exhibit of Native American sweetgrass and ash splint baskets. These baskets, provided by the Friends of the Field, radiate patience in their design and development.

Hours: Monday 3:00 - 6:00 p.m.; Wednesday 2:00 - 7:00 p.m.;
Saturday 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Friends Meeting: 2nd Wednesday of each month, 7:00 p.m. All are welcome.

The FML Book Club is currently reading Miracle Creek by Angie Kim. To join the club, contact the director. Check the library website for the next meeting date after the library reopens.

From the Farmers at Natural Roots

With growing concern about Covid-19, we want to update the community on the steps we are taking to ensure we can safely continue to provide access to food here at our farm. Presently we are disinfecting all frequently touched surfaces – door, cooler, and freezer handles; the checkout device, pens, and calculator; etc. – at least three times per day. We've provided a hand-washing station outside the CSA barn and ask everyone, customers and farm crew alike, to wash their hands thoroughly with soap for a full 20 seconds before entering the barn. We and our small farm crew are being extra cautious about washing hands upon arrival at work and throughout the day, especially before and after tending things in the farm store.

We are in contact with local health professionals, other local farm stores and grocers, and the board of health to update our practices as the situation evolves. We are closely in touch with our crew and monitor their potential exposure to the coronavirus on a daily basis. No farm workers will come to work if they feel unwell. Please do not come to the farm if you are feeling unwell or have been in contact with anyone exhibiting symptoms. If you are in need of farm produce or food items and can't make it to the farm, call or email us and we'll arrange to get you what you need.

We will continue to monitor the situation and will update you with any changes. Meanwhile, we are continuing to get ready for the start of our 2020 season. It is a privilege to provide nourishment to our community in this unsettled time. Wishing you health, peace, and resilience from all of us at the farm, and looking forward to seeing you when we're able!

The Festival of the Hills – We Need You!

The Festival of the Hills has been a tradition for Conway for decades. Over our many years we have provided funds to graduating high school seniors not only for college but for their first step into independence, whether that meant trade school or transportation to a new job. This year we are looking to fill the following leader roles:

Fried Dough, Food Vendors, Advertising, Marketing (college student looking for experience?), Logistics (parking and coordinator of rental equipment)

We will train for these positions! You are not required at every meeting. We just need dependable individuals who want to keep our festival and scholarships alive. To learn more, please email us at festivalofthehills@yahoo.com.

Hilltown Churches Food Pantry

The Hilltown Churches Food Pantry is located at 429 Main Street, Ashfield, in Friendship Hall, downstairs in Ashfield Congregational Church. It serves the eleven hill towns of Ashfield, Buckland, Charlemont, Colrain, Conway, Hawley, Heath, Monroe, Plainfield, Rowe, and Shelburne. The only requirement for joining the food pantry is proof of residency in one of these towns and a simple statement of need. There are no income requirements. If you need food, please come and sign up

Food distributions are held every other Tuesday from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m. We typically serve about 600 people at each distribution. Emergency food is available during off hours.

The pantry relies on donations of both money and food for our continued operation. We are able to stretch our money by shopping at the Food Bank of Western Mass., as they provide most foods free and a few for 19 cents/lb. Last year we gave out 85,616 pounds of food to those in need. We spend 96–98 percent of our budget directly on food.

Franklin County Regional Dog Shelter

The Franklin County Regional Dog Shelter, 10 Sandy Lane, Turners Falls, MA 01376, led by Shelter Director Leslee Colucci, is a group of mostly volunteers serving 21 Franklin County towns. We are determined to help every dog who enters our facility in every way possible. Our mission is to provide a safe, welcoming temporary home for stray, lost, or unwanted dogs and to find a home best suited for each individual dog. The shelter's director and her assistant are the only two paid positions, with all the day-to-day care of the dogs done by a corps of volunteers. These dedicated volunteers are the reason for the shelter's success. Expenses are met through donations and fundraising.

There is a never ending need for new volunteers to help care for the dogs and provide them with socialization, training, and just good old play time. Please come by for an application and to see how you can help with the care of the dogs! We currently are looking to fill the following positions: media coordinator, volunteer coordinator, and event coordinator. Please contact the shelter at 413-676-9182 or fcrdogkennel.org if you are interested in more information.

Take a Walk Around the Meadow

Have you visited the town's South River Meadow just off Shelburne Falls Road in the town center? The 11-acre property has been steadily cleaned up over the last few years.

Mowed walking paths around the center hayfield provide access to the river, and a native-stone memorial bench generously donated by the Hatch family last year offers a place to rest. Bluebirds have set up housekeeping in the four nesting boxes on the east side of the field. Look for the large kestrel house on the south end. The perimeter vegetation is becoming a showcase of native plants and their pollinators. The more than 75 shrubs planted by Conway's sixth graders (marked by red and white flags) wintered over well and are "springing" to life.

The meadow is a pleasant place to stretch your legs or sit and contemplate the river. There is parking in the flat area below Shelburne Falls Road. Please abide by the Conway leash law and pick up after your dogs.
